The Conclave joins Edison Media Research in announcing this year's recipients of the "30 Under 30" honor. The Conclave Learning Conference '08: AT THE CROSSROADS is the site of a luncheon honoring the recipients on Saturday, June 28th at the Marriott City Center in Minneapolis. Edison's 30 Under 30 was started in 2007 as an effort to both celebrate the accomplishments of young broadcasters and to help the industry attract and retain talented young professionals. The Somerville, N.J.-based research company presents their prestigious award annually at the Conclave's Summer Learning Conference. This year's honorees include: Dave "Tazz Daddy" Anderson-KBFB/Dallas, Daniel Anstandig-McVay New Media, Rob Anthony -WMAS/Springfield, Jim Bezak- Saga Communications, Ian Bush - KYW/Philadelphia, Charlamagne - WBLS/New York, Justin Chase - KMXB/KKJJ/Las Vegas, Tommy Chuck - WFLZ Tampa, Ryan Dokke - WKKT/Charlotte, Jennifer Megan Dowdy - WCLU/Glasgow, Blake Florence - KTWW/Los Angeles, Sarah Harris - Emmis Communications/Indianapolis, Scott Herrold - SOS Radio Network/Las Vegas, James "Doubledown" Howard - WXTB/Tampa, Talya Johnson - WPGC/Washington, Jake Kaplan - KCBS/KROQ/Los Angeles, Carly Laskey - Clear Channel/Raleigh, Marisa Magnatta - WMMR/Philadelphia, Kyle McCoy - New Northwest Broadcasters/Billings, Rich McLaughlin - WFUV/New York, Amy Miller - WTYD/WBQK/Williamsburg, Courtney Quinn - WLZX/Springfield/Mass., Sisanie Retagui - KIIIS Los Angeles, Justin Riley - KKOB/KMGA/Albuquerque, Alex Roman - WABC/WPLJ/New York, Travis "TreDay" Rowan - KIPR/Little Rock, Thomas "Chase" Rupe - Emmis Austin/Texas, David Snoble - Clear Channel Communications/Chicago, Chris Thomas - WLWQ/Columbus, Joshua Wilkey - WilkeySouth Media Brokers/Countrywide Broadcasters (The recipient's complete profiles can be found at www.30under30.net.) "We were pleasantly surprised this year both by the wide variety of people and talents represented by this year's 30 Under 30 nominees, and by seeing so many new names at a time when new talent is so crucial to our industry," said Edison Media Research VP of music and programming Sean Ross. "It was a very difficult field to narrow down." Last year, this list included just one woman. This year, eight women are included on the 2008 list of honorees – a direct result of nominees submitted by the Conclave's WECAN (Women's Education & Career Advancement Networking) Committee. The Conclave is absolutely thrilled that Edison has again selected the Summer Learning Conference to showcase their 30 Under 30." This year's 30 Under 30 luncheon will also include special guest Isaac Hayes and his writing partner David Porter in unique interview with syndicated morning host Rickey Smiley presented by BMI. The complete agenda for the Conclave: At the Crossroads, slated from June 26th-28th, 2008 as well as details on registration can be found online at www.theconclave.com.

Despite a threatened Bush Presidential veto, the Senate voted to block the FCC from implementing its revised media rule changes allowing newspaper-broadcast cross-ownership in the top 20 markets. Sen. Byron Dorgan (D-ND) says the revised rules include a "gaping loophole" that would have allowed newspaper-broadcast combinations in smaller cities. The FCC changes also face a legal battle from activists.

Clear Channel has officially announced their buyout settlement with backers Thomas H. Lee Partners and Bain Capital along with lenders Citigroup, Deutsche Bank, Credit Suisse, Morgan Stanley, Royal Bank Of Scotland, and Wachovia. The deal at $36 per share, valued at $17.9 billion is pending shareholder approval. The parties to the settlement agreement have agreed to extend the outside date for completion of the merger to December 31st, 2008. The deal includes an option for shareholders to exchange their shares on a one-for-one basis for Class A common shares in the new company, CC Media Holdings, Inc. Clear Channel's board has unanimously approved the new deal and recommends that shareholders approve it.

The Cumulus buyout deal is off and the company announced that the deal for Chairman/Pres./CEO Lew Dickey and Merrill Lynch Global Private Equity has been terminated after investors "were unable to agree on terms on which they could proceed with the transaction." Investors will pony up a $15 million termination fee. Dickey said, "Our business remains fundamentally sound and we intend to continue to operate it aggressively and explore opportunities to create and deliver value for our shareholders." Cumulus also announced that its board of directors intends to look into a new stock repurchase plan.

Yes, WECAN! The Conclave announced the first event of the Conclave's annual Learning Conference. Dubbed "The First Annual Conclave WECAN Committee Kick-Off Party", this networking and social gathering is scheduled for Wednesday June 25th and will also serve as the official "first step" for the Women's Educational and Career Advancement Network (WECAN) committee formed by the Conclave. The Conclave Learning Conference is scheduled for June 26th-29th at the Marriott City Center in Minneapolis. The WECAN event will include hosted networking by Wendy Templeton, host of Sovereign City Communications' The Wendy Templeton Show, followed by informal mingling. Attendees will receive $250 worth of swag in a signature Vera Bradley bag, 2 complimentary drinks, appetizers and an electronic networking directory of all participating attendees. Admission to this kick-off event is included with a full conference registration, and is open to the public for a donation of $35. The WECAN Committee is an outreach arm of the Conclave that is focused on promoting women in the radio industry. All proceeds from this event will go towards the WECAN mission of development of educational seminars, scholarships, and career development opportunities for women, men & students in the radio broadcasting industry. Current sponsors are the Oasis radio Format, Famous Footwear, and Vera Bradley. Tax-deductible opportunities for individuals and corporations to support the mission of WECAN are available. The complete agenda for the Conclave: At the Crossroads, slated from June 26th-28th, 2008 as well as details on registration can be found online at <http://www.theconclave.com>.

Two group heads with significant Midwest – and Conclave – ties were recently quoted about the value of the radio station employee. Saga's Ed Christian says, "We've lost so many good people in the radio industry. We've worked them too hard, cut them off from information by not send them to conventions or sharing industry trades. And we don't offer good training. People get burned out and find new jobs outside of radio. A committed business-focused manager can literally write his/her own ticket today." NRG's Mary Quass agrees, saying, "We have to start paying attention to our most valuable resource – our people." NRG Media just held its annual managers' meeting and staff development was this year's theme. Quass says, "We tried to focus on giving our managers better tools and ways to be better managers – and better leaders. Commentary: Ed and Mary get it. We wish more operators did. Their belief in their employees is why you'll see so many Saga and NRG people circulating at next month's Conclave Learning Conference. If your boss is balking at the value of sending you to the longest running programming conference in radio history, clip out this article and attach it to the 2008 conference agenda (available at <http://www.theconclave.com>). Then, suggest to your manager that they call Ed and Mary, and ask their opinion of the Learning Conference. You might be surprised at just how fast you'll be headed to Minneapolis next month! - TK

Sirius Satellite Radio CFO David Frear said his company is prepared to reject some conditions that federal regulators might impose on its proposed merger with XM Satellite Radio. "The company won't do anything — the company won't agree to a set of conditions that's going to adversely impact, and would not be to the benefit of, our current subscribers, our future subscribers, and our shareholders," Frear said. "It's all got to make sense." Speculation says the FCC will rule on the spectrum-license transfer and if it refuses, the deal will be dead.

The Consumer Federation Of America, Consumers Union and Free Press are urging the FCC to reject the proposed XM-Sirius merger that was signed off by The Dept. of Justice. "The Justice Dept. tossed all tenets of antitrust out the window in its rush to rubber stamp this merger-to-monopoly," Consumer Federation Of America Dir./Research Mark Cooper said. "The FCC should not buy into the flawed reasoning that led to the DOJ's disastrous decision. Consumers are depending on the commission to stop this dangerous deal dead in its tracks." The Justice Department based its merger approval on the conclusion that satellite radio is part of a larger audio market. The groups argue that satellite radio represents a unique consumer product, showing that it does not compete with iTUNES, Internet radio or terrestrial radio.

States attorneys general continues to raise concerns about the XM-Sirius merger because of the lack of an interoperable radio that would work with both services and the "significant harm" that could result from the "loss of a direct competitor." More than one dozen attorneys general registered their disapproval of the Justice Department's decision not to apply any conditions to the possible merger. FCC member Jonathan Adelstein shared that concern, saying, "The attorneys generals have a number of serious concerns. I think it is important that the FCC, after such dismissive treatment by the AGs, take extra consideration on the very legitimate concerns that the attorneys generals are raising." There is no sign of an XM-Sirius merger decision out of the FCC anytime soon.

Three new board members and five incumbents have been appointed to the eight seats on the NAB Radio Board of Directors. The selections were made by NAB Radio Board Chairman Russ Withers with the approval of the Radio Executive Committee and NAB Joint Board Chairman Jack Sander. The two-year terms become effective at the upcoming NAB Board meeting in June. Re-appointed to the NAB Radio Board are Sheridan Broadcasting SVP/CFO Susan Davenport, Saga Pres./CEO Ed Christian, Clear Channel SVP/Government Affairs Jessica Marventano, Legend Communications EVP/Co-Owner Susan Patrick and Inner City Broadcasting Pres./COO Charles Warfield. Newly appointed to the NAB Radio Board are Salem Communications Pres./CEO Ed Atsinger, Schurz Communications VP/Radio Sally Brown and Univision Radio Pres. Gary Stone.

Someone is posting online death threats to Talker and 2007 Conclave Keynote Neal Boortz. The Jones Radio Networks and Cox Radio Talk WSB-AM/Atlanta host has been receiving the threats on WSB's website. WSB security official Alexander Shapiro has notified Atlanta police of the threats and that the messages are coming from an "undisclosed" address.

Cumulus Talk KMAJ-AM/Topeka host Jim Cates' retirement started about seven months earlier than he expected after the station relieved him from his 8-11a slot following Wednesday's show. The firing came as a surprise to Cates, who said he had differences with management, including being told not to do an hour of open lines every day and not to do certain undisclosed topics. The station's SVP Spike Santee said, "We will be trying out a number of different hosts. We're going to take our time because, to us, that's a marquee position."

Christian Voice Of Central Ohio Inc. gets fined $9,000 by the FCC for airing underwriting announcements that qualified as ads on then Non-comm Christian WCVZ/Zanesville, OH in August 2003. The station later applied to change the station's classification to commercial, which was granted in 2004, but the fine, reduced from $20,000, remains in effect for the prior violations.

CBS Talk KLSX/Los Angeles host and former Conclave TalenTrak keynote Danny Bonaduce is being sued by "Survivor" contestant Jonny Fairplay after Bonaduce dumped Fairplay to the ground during an awards show. The suit alleges battery, intentional infliction of emotional distress and negligence by Bonaduce against Fairplay, who an attorney says jumped on Bonaduce as he was leaving the stage. A trial date has been scheduled for December 16th.

Continental Broadcast Group Regional Mexican WEDJ/Indianapolis announces its sponsorship of Indy Car Driver Mario Dominguez, the driver of the Pacific Coast Motor Sports entry into the 2008 Indianapolis 500. "We are thrilled to be sponsoring Mario Dominguez in Car 96 in this year's Indy 500," WEDJ GM Russ Dodge said. "Our audience will enjoy watching his efforts in qualifying and on race day. We are also looking forward to our promotions with the primary sponsor, Mexico City Tourism." "I am very excited about this project," Dominguez said. "Racing in the Indy 500 is a childhood dream of mine."

Only in America... NextMedia R&B Oldies WWYW/Chicago-Dundee, IL Jim Shea was watching "The Andy Griffith Show" on the TV Land cable network, when he noticed someone had removed the classic whistling in the show's closing sequence and was rushing through the closing credits. Shea went on-air the next day and complained about what he saw, then put up an online petition to send to Viacom (TV Land's parent company). "I tried to contact every notable surviving cast member," he said. "Then one day I came home and found a message on my answering machine ... from Andy Griffith himself! I had him on the air this morning and he was great. He said if you do away with the credits, it's as if all the great people who created this great American classic never even existed." You can hear the entire conversation on the station's website: <http://www.y1039.com>.

Chris Farley's brother has a new book out that includes material from Talk Radio Network FM host Mancow Muller, who shares stories about Farley's visits to his show and other anecdotes. "The Chris Farley Show," by Tom Farley JR. with Tanner Colby, recounts the life of the comedian and "Saturday Night Live" star, with Mancow's stories about Farley's friendship, drinking, and fascination with clowns included. Mancow's show has added eight new affiliates in recent weeks, including WCFO-AM/Atlanta, WVIE-AM/Baltimore, WIST-AM/New Orleans, and KHBZ-AM/Honolulu, and 21 since last year.

Kudos to CBS Hot AC WQAL/Cleveland Morning team Rebecca Wilde and Alan Fee in raising over $170,000 for the Cleveland Animal Protective League during their "Pledge For Pets Radiothon." Proceeds from the event will provide humane services and operations at The Cleveland Animal Protective League.

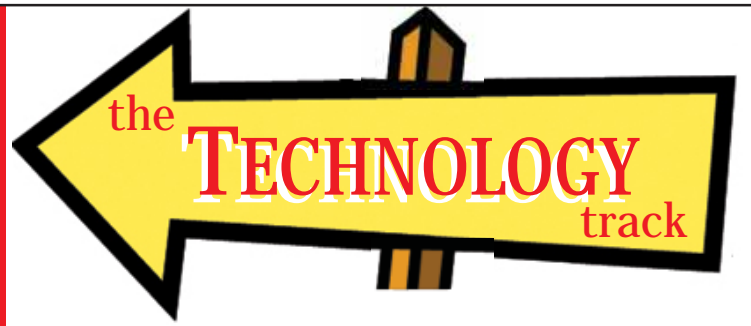

Zimmer Radio/Joplin, MO has set up relief and collection efforts to help the people affected by the devastating tornadoes that recently struck the region. Dir./Operations and Programming Chad Elliot says his stations are collecting food, water and money at the cluster's studios and have already filled one truck with goods for those in need. The tornadoes struck just three miles south of the stations' studios.

Imagine giving out severe weather updates live on-the-air when a tornado rips through. That's what happened at Arkansas County Broadcasters, Inc. Talk KWAK-AM/Stuttgart, AR. GM Scott Siler says the tornado "took the rooftop off the transmitter building. You can see the red and white tower laying across the field." Studios for KWAK and sister KWAK-FM are located 200 yards from the tower, but no one was hurt. "It's pretty much a miracle our studios didn't get more damaged." Said Siler.

Clear Channel Top 40 WZEE/Madison morning duo Connie and Fish wrapped up 30 hours of compelling radio in the 4th annual Champions For Kids Radiothon. This year, they raised $636,341, which bumped the four-year total to over $2.2 million. Way To Go!
